Get Fresh With Skincare

Now on the menu is Bioxil's 2 Weeks Miracle. Fact is, just like everything else, fresh is best but until now, having skincare prepared and delivered fresh had never been done. Delivered within a week of creation, the mixture of plant extracts (including ginkgo biloba and licorice) and organic ingredients (like soybean and grain) provide a rich source of active ingredients so the concoction is more potent and effective. To increase its miracle-effect, a peptide complex has been added to revive, protect and increase skin renewal, and then all ingredients nano-capsulated for targeted delivery to cells. Oh, and the short production-to-consumption time also means no chemical preservatives, artificial colours or fragrances are involved. Each range (anti-ageing and whitening) contains two-weeks of measured doses, for both day and night. The clear gauge on the side indicates which day you're at and after two weeks, you should be looking at your miracle.
